THE PROIESTANT EPISCOP AL SUNDAY SCHOOLS, General Meeting .esterday at the Epiphany

Church.

Yest day was a holiday for the children con-nected with the Sunday schools of the Protestant Episcopal churches of the District, on the occa-Eptscopal churches of the District, on the occasion of the second general meeting of the schools. The children assembled early in the afternoon at their respective churches, and proceeded, some on foot and some in conveyances, with shining faces and flying banners, to the Epiphany church on G street. After the children, their superintendents and teachers and the visitors were scated the large church was packed. There were in all about eighteen hundred in the church, about fifteen hundred of whom were little folks.

In the pulpit and vestry were suspended festoms of flowers, and the fount was covered with a pyramid of flowers and autumn leaves. On the pulpit platform, robed in white surplices, on either side were seated the Revs. A. B. Atkins, of St. John's church, Georgetown: Chew, of St. Alban's, J. H. Elliott, of Ascension, C. D. Anderson, of Christ Church, Washington: V. W. Williams, of Christ, of St. Paul's, Rock Creek; T. G. Addison, et Trinity, Washington: W. W. Williams, of Christ church, Georgetown: Rev. Dr. Lewin, of Carroll county, Maryland: Dean, of the Washington Convocation, the Revs. J. L. Townsend, of the Nesmation, A. F. Steele, of St. Mark's, W. F. Watkins, of Epiphany, and J. E. Micke, of St. James.

The Rev. A. B. Atkins, president of the asse-

The Rev. A. B. Atkins, president of the asso-ciation, opened the exercises of the day by simply amouncing the occasion on which they had again met. A hymn was then sung by the whole assem-bly, led by the Rev. C. D. Andrews. Psalm xxiii was then read, the Rev. Mr. Chew leading. "Gloris in excelsis" was sung by the children. The Rev. J. H. Elliott read the lesson of the day, St. Matthew xviii, 1-4. The Rev. J. A. Back led in the recitation of the Apostles' creed, and the recitation of prayer was led by the Rev. T. G. Adrecitation of prayer was led by the Rev. T.G. Addisea.

Another hymn was sung, and the Rev. W. Williams, of Georgetown, delivered a short and pleasant address to the children, which added greatly to their enjoyment of the occasion. Rev. Lewin also made a few remarks, which were well received.

After a hymn and prayer by the Rev. J. L.
Townsend, the "Gioria Patri" was sung, benedic-tion was pronounced by the Rev. Lewin, and the children were again marshaled out of the church and to their homes, after an hour of pleasure and

A Pleasant Day and a Pleasant Trip. Since the acceptance of the invitation of Loudeun Lodge of Leesburg, Va., the Odd Pel-lows of the District of Columbia have looked forward to the visit to that town, and yester-day morning about six hundred from the various edges of the District, accompanied by the Marine band, boarded a special train at the Baltimore and Potomac depot consisting of ten curs. At dexandria two extra cars were taken on, con taining a delegation of about one hundred from that city. At the depot in Leesburg the District and Alexandria lodges were received by the Lou-doun Lodge, whose hospitality they were to enjoy.

P. G. Divine, of Leudoun Lodge, welcomed the guests, and Wm. McLean, G. R., of Wash-ington, responded. A line was formed at the depot, and the lodges marched out to the fair grounds about one mile away, where the ceunty fair was in progress. At the fair grounds the lodges went through a drill, and the Marine band played some choice selections. The uniformed lodge of this city attracted special attention by their handsome uniforms and superior marching. At 250 the line was signin formed, and hosts and guests marched back to the village and partook of a bountiful collation at the hotel, and after a day of unmarred pleasure the District lodges boarded the train for the homeward trip about 6 o'clock, and arrived in this city about 800 o'clock. and Alexandria lodges were received by the Lou VIRGINIA. Free Bridge Across the Potomac-Meeting of Citizens of Alexandria County.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting of the itizens of Alexandria county was held at the school house at Balls Cross-Roads last Wednesday evening; H. A. Whallon, esq., in the chair, and Mr. Clements acting as secretary. The minutes of the previous meeting were read, corrected and approved. The committee appointed to walt on the gentlemen who first agitated the movement in favor of a free; bridge reported progress, and Mr. T. H. Sypherd was called upon to state what had been done in the premises. Mr. Sypherd stated that about three years ago a meeting of the citizens of Fairfax and Alexandria counties was held, and the subject of a free bridge across the Potemac fully discussed, and a committee appointed to use all honorable means to secure the desired object. He also reported the many obsta-cies which they had had to contend with; among others, the opposition of ex-Senator Lawis, ex-Governor Wells and others. He also spoke of the service rendered the committee by General N. P. Chipman and other members of the House of Representatives; that in his opinion it was useless to have any more conferences with the Aqueduct Bridge Company, and the plan he suggested was, lnasmuch as several petitions had been presented to Congress in favor of a new bridge, signed by over two thousand persons, that the committee now urge Congress to make an appropriation for a new bridge. Specifications and bids were in course of preparation, and would be ready to submit to Congress on their assembling in December. Mr. G. R. Adams offered a resolution indersing the action of that committee and appointing a sub-committee to act in corcert with them. Capt. H. Dwight Smith stated that for the past three years he had been using his utmost endeavors to secure a free bridge, and was in hopes that the object for which he and they had labored so long would soon be accomplished. Mr. F. G. Schutt submitted the following Which, upon motion of Mr. R. G. Cunningham, was received and ordered recorded.

Captain Snow, of Washington, was salled upon, and spoke in repard to the dangerous condition of the Aqueduct bridge, stating that if the water was drawn out without additional braces being put under the bridge it would collapse, and recommended that Congress be requested to have a commission of practical engineers to inspect the same and report as to its security.

After a free interchange of opinions on the subject, the meeting adjourned for three weeks, evidently meaning business.

THE PROTECTIVE GAME CLUB. Important Business Transacted. A meeting of this club was held last evening in the effice of Boswell & Hall, in Le Droit building

Col. J. O. P. Burnside in the chair, and Major M A. Tappan, secretary.

Messrs. Owen Reilly, George E. Hale and G. ). Barren, were elected members of the club. Mr. Heunch, from the committee on grounds reported that they procured the Arsenal ground as a practice range for members of the club. Col. Burnside stated that Mr. Simon Wolf president of the Schuetzen Verein, called on him during the past week and made a proposition to the club to share the Schuetzen park with the Verein, provided that the club would bear their pro rata of the expense of conducting the park. The members would be on the same footing as active members of the Schuetzen Verein, and the club could have control of the park whenever they wished to have a rifle match with another club. Captain C. C. Baugh stated that it was imposs Captain C. Haugh stated that it was imposs-ble to get a range in the park of over 285 yards, but 1,000 yards could be obtained by renting, or leasing an extension of the range through the Widmeyer and Whitney estates. The question was referred to the committee on grounds. Mesers. C. C. Baugh and Louis Beyer were ap-grounds.

On motion of Mr. Seiler, Tuesday next was fixed as the first trial day for all who desire to shoot for position in the proposed rifle team—the shooting to take place on the Arsenal grounds.

Capt. Haugh and Mr. Heunch were appointed a committee to draft rules to govern the rifle team, and when these rules are adopted they are to be incorporated in the constitution and by-laws of the club.

The question of the target to be used was discussed and referred to the committee on grounds.
The naming of the second and third day of the contest was referred to the same committee. It was announced that if Tuesday was a bad day the Special Agent W. T. Henderson testified that on the 14th of September the pound of Mr. Whiteside was examined, and fourteen letters were found in it. He caused the letters to be forwarded and inquiries to be made as to when they were placed in the boxes. He had ascertained that in nearly every case the letters were handed to the carrier with the postage.

The commissioner asked if the witnesses in each case could not be produced.

Mr. Henderson said they could but submit that the letters having been detained there was a violation of law. Mr. Henderson further said that Whiteside explained that he had forgotten to mail these letters, having had them in the pockets of a pair of pants which he was not in the habit of wearing.

Mr. Heiltestified to finding the detained letters in Whiteside's pouch. He did not believe that there was any criminal intentin the matter. The commissioner said that the penalty was not very heavy, and he would hold the acoused to ball in the sum of $250 for the action of the grand jury. The penalty is a fine of $500 or one year's imprisonment, or both. The witnesses gave their testimony before the grand jury during the afternoon.

The Deberah Lodge last evening, on the occa sion of the festival of Simchath Thorah, gave its annual ball for the benefit of the poer and dis tressed, at the Masonic Temple. The arrangements for the ball, which proved a great su ments for the ball, which proved a great success, were in charge of a committee consisting of J. Rich, chairman; J. Gotthell, M. M. Rich, L. Fell. heimer and Morris Cohen. The music was furnished by Schroder's band. The dancing was continued until a late hour, and the scene was a happy one, of which many of the faces of the handsome Jewesses of the city formed a part. There were about seventy-five couples present, and financially the alfair was as great a success as it was otherwise.

The National Theatre-Si Slocum. To night the stirring drama of "St blocum" will be repeated at the National theatre, and the oc-saion being Mr. Frayne's benefit the house ought be manually leave. The actions last winter casion being Mr. Frayne's benefit the house ought to be unusually large. The audience last night was the most enthusiastic of the week, and the life-life soenes of the play were most heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Frayne's natural and effective rendition of her vole of frontiersman's wife adds much to the enjoyment of the play, and their bright little boy, Frankie, very handsomely completes the picture of a home surrounded by all the perils desperate outlaws can invent. Matinee Saturday afternees. The dog Jack and the Indian pony Hucklebarry expect all the young folks to come and see them.

The most excellent performance at the Theatre Comique attracts fine houses. The zerial work of Aubrey and Moulton is certainly very brillians, The Avenue Theatre-
